

Table 1. Chart summarizing the various surveys used (2000-2011)

GJM Event	Research Team*	Number of interviewees	Languages
2000-2002: 5 counter-summits (Netherlands, USA, Canada) ¹	Fisher	1514	English, French, Dutch, and German
July 2001: Anti-G8, Genoa, Italy	Della Porta	762 Italians	Italian
November 2001: First ESF, Florence, Italy	Della Porta	2384-2579	English, French, Italian, Spanish and German
May 2003: anti-G8, Evian, France	Sommier	2282	English, French, Italian, and German
November 2003: Second ESF, Paris, France	Sommier	2198	English, French, Italian, Spanish and German
May and September 2004: Brisbane and Sydney Social Forums	Bramble	210 Australians	English
WSF 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007	Ibase	2540 (for 2005)	Portuguese, French, English and Spanish
2005: WSF, Porto Alegre, Brazil	Chase-Dunn	625	Portuguese, English and Spanish
2005: WSF, Porto Alegre, Brazil	Reese	639	Portuguese, English and Spanish
2006: forth ESF, Athens, Greece	Della Porta	1058-1144	English, French, Italian, Spanish and German
2007: WSF, Nairobi, Kenya	Reese	535	Portuguese, English and Spanish, French, Swahili
2007: USA Social Forum, Atlanta	Reese	582 Americans	English and Spanish
2011: WSF, Dakar, Senegal	Siméant	1069-1169	English, French, Spanish, Portuguese and Wolof

* The research is obviously the work of more or less large teams; our decision here to use the name of the main initiator is intended to facilitate reading and certainly not to personalize the surveys.

 The possible variation in the number of surveys can be explained by the variable number of questionnaires analyzed depending on the team's researchers and /or the time required for statistical processing.

In : SOMMIER Isabelle, 2015. "What can INSURA (Individual SURveys during Rallies or quantitative surveys) tell about GJM activists?", in SIMÉANT Johanna, POMMEROLLE Marie-Emmanuelle, SOMMIER Isabelle (éds.), Observing Protest from a Place: the WSF in Dakar (2011), Amsterdam University Press, p. 25.

¹ 1) November 13-24, 2000: the "Human Dike" at the 2000 Conference of the Parties-6 (COP-6) of the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change, the Hague, the Netherlands (interviews with 204 protest participants from 25 countries); 2) February 2, 2002: the "Another World Is Possible March" at the 2002 World Economic Forum, New York City (316 surveys with participants from four countries.); 3) April 20, 2002: the "A20 Stop the War at Home and Abroad/Mobilization for Global Justice" at the spring 2002 meetings of the World Bank/IMF, Washington, DC (177 participants from 28 of the 50 United States); 4) June 26-27 2002: the 2002 "G-6B Demonstration" during the G-8 meetings, Calgary, Canada (Eighty-six protesters from four countries); 5) September 28 and 29, 2002: the "Mobilization for Global Justice" at the fall 2002 meetings of the World Bank/IMF, Washington, DC (730 participants from 11 countries).